Studying online and studying face to face are two ways of learning

Write an essay about the two kinds, using the following guide words:

Guiding words:

inside class – contact – expression – active – go anywhere – computer – internet – limit – time – age

Online vs. Face-to-Face Learning:

Education today offers two primary modes: online and face-to-face. Online learning is characterized by its flexibility and accessibility, allowing students to study from anywhere with an internet connection. It fosters active participation through digital interactions. In contrast, face-to-face learning in traditional classrooms provides immediate interaction and a dynamic learning environment. The choice depends on individual preferences, learning styles, and course requirements, with age sometimes influencing the decision. Striking a balance between these methods is key to creating a comprehensive learning experience.

My favorite Tv show is Tash Ma Tash. Tash Ma Tash is a popular comedy series. It is one of the most successful Tv works in Saudi Arabia. Every episode presents a funny new story about Saudi society. This show was first aired on Saudi TV during Ramadan, then bought by MBC. Naser Al Qasabi and Abdullah Al Sadhan are the stars of the series. The first two seasons were directed by Amer AlHomood then AbdulKhaleq ALGhanem. I think most Saudis like the show.

Q. 1 (Reading)

A) Read the following passage and answer the following questions:

Last night, the police finally caught the well-known hungry burglar in action in the house of TONY Green. The burglar was known in the area for breaking into the houses when the owners were either gone or asleep, and simply eating or taking whatever food he could find. Many victims simply woke up or returned home to find their cupboards and fridges completely empty. That wasn't the case for Tony, however, asleep when heard strange noises coming from the kitchen. He quietly went downstairs and, to his astonishment, saw a chubby man, of about forty, eating his chickens leftovers. He immediately called the police and asked them to come to his house as quickly as possible. The police told him not to panic and said that they would be there in no time. They also told him to stay in his room for safety reasons. I have heard stories of the hungry thief from friends and some neighbors who had been victims of his food raiding, so I was prepared, Tony says. Thankfully, the police arrived before the thief had time to finish my roast chicken. They also found about ten bags of food he was ready to take with him before he left.

People like Tim and Miranda Jones were not so lucky. They returned home once to find one of their front windows broken and their kitchen a mess. They said that it looked like a hurricane had passed through their house. There were scraps of food everywhere and pots and pans scattered on the floor. The police asked us if anything else was missing. We checked to see if our money and jewellery were gone. Fortunately everything was in its place. It was just the food he was after. We asked our neighbors if they had heard or seen but nobody had. The police confirmed the identification of the man by matching his fingerprints with some that had been left on food containers from his previous burglaries. After the burglar confessed, the police asked him why he had committed those crimes. He said that he was a homeless man who was simply hungry and preferred eating home cooked meals to stealing from the supermarkets. He also said that he never stole anything apart from food. He was charged with burglary and can face up to two years in prison.

IV-Reading

Read the following passage and answer the questions below:

Good evening and welcome to today's World Weather report. Well, the weather's been even busier and even more exciting than usual, especially in North America and Asia!

As we move into the early summer, temperatures have been rising more quickly than normal and this is producing dangerous weather conditions.

Let's start in South Asia with the Himalayas. Here in the world's highest, most dramatic mountains, snow and ice are melting earlier and faster than usual and this is causing more avalanches. And as melting continues, enormous quantities of water are entering the great rivers of India and Bangladesh. These are already rising and causing floods. Let's move now to South-East Asia. There, a big storm with heavy rainfall of over 700 mm and wind speeds as high as 120 kph has smashed into the Philippines. It isn't as violent as some other storms, but it's bad enough to cause many problems. Mudslides on steep hills have destroyed many homes and worse is expected. Emergency workers are moving people away from more dangerous areas to places of safety.

A- Answer these questions:

1-What is the text about?

2-What is happening to the snow and ice?

3- Have mudslides on steep hills destroyed many homes and worse is expected?

Read the following text, and then answer the questions below: (½ a mark each)

You have got something that is more complicated than the most powerful computer in the world. With this thing, you can experience the sight and smell of a flower, the memory of holiday, the pain when you hit your thumb with a hammer, the sound of your favorite singer, your thoughts and ideas. All these are possible because of a kilo of cells in your skull: the brain. Your brain controls everything you do. It receives information from your senses about conditions inside and outside your body. Your brain analyses this information with amazing speed and sends out messages that control your body. For example, when you put your hand in very hot water, you think "Oh! That hurts!" and you pull your hand from the water. This is what happens in your brain. Your hand sends a message to your brain: "Very hot!" and your brain immediately sends a message to your hand: "Take your hand out." Your brain also stores memories of things that happened to you in the past and this makes remembering easy. Finally, your brain controls your lungs, heartbeat, body temperature and the actions of your stomach. The brain cells create and send more messages than all the phones in the entire world. An average person uses only about 10% of the brain's capacity.

Socializing Online or Face to Face

Socializing Online or Face to Face:

In today's digital age, the way we socialize has undergone a transformation. With the advent of technology, we have the choice to socialize either online or face to face. Both methods have their merits and demerits. When socializing online, we can use various forms of technology to communicate, combining text, emojis, and even video calls. It's a remote yet effective way to stay connected with dear ones across distances. However, this mode of interaction can sometimes lack the depth and nuances of face-to-face communication. Face-to-face socializing allows for direct, in-person interactions, facilitating the understanding of non-verbal expressions and body language. It requires more effort but can significantly enhance our social skills. In the end, the choice between online and face-to-face socializing depends on our preferences and the nature of our relationships.

② Write a paragraph about (A place in Saudi Arabia):

A Place in Saudi Arabia:

One of the most captivating places in Saudi Arabia is the ancient city of Al-Ula. This historical gem, located in the northwest of the Kingdom, is a treasure trove of archaeological wonders and breathtaking landscapes. Al-Ula boasts a rich history, with rock formations and tombs that date back centuries. The towering sandstone mountains and uniquely sculpted landscapes create a surreal and mesmerizing environment. Visitors can explore the UNESCO World Heritage site of Madain Saleh, often referred to as the "Second Petra," and witness the awe-inspiring Nabatean tombs carved into the rose-colored cliffs. Al-Ula is a place where history and natural beauty combine to offer an unforgettable experience for those who seek to explore its wonders.

COLORADO, USA—A man walked into a corner store in Colorado Springs with a gun and demanded all of the cash from the cash register. After the cashier had put the cash in a bag, the robber saw a pack of cigarettes that he wanted behind the counter on the shelf. He told the cashier to put it in the bag along with the cash. The cashier refused, saying that the man wasn't over twenty-one. The robber insisted that he was in fact older than twenty-one, but the cashier stood his ground and refused to give it to him unless he showed official identification stating his age. The robber took his driver's license out of his wallet and gave it to the cashier. After a couple of minutes, the clerk agreed that the man was indeed over twenty-one and put the pack of cigarettes in the bag. As the robber ran from the store, the cashier immediately called the police and gave the name and address he had seen on the license. The police arrested the robber two hours later while he was sitting in his living room smoking a cigarette.

A) Answer the following questions:
